WE RELIEVE THE ESTATE'S ATTORNEY

When an individual acts as executor, guardian, or trustee, there are many extra duties which ordinarily fall upon his attorney, and from which the latter may be relieved by this company.

Among these duties are all details in connection with the collection and custody of the estate's assets; inventories and appraisals; inheritance taxes, claims, accounts, reports and the distribution of the estate.

This is accomplished through a simple form of agreement under which the trust company acts as agent for the executor, administrator, etc.

We retain the client's own attorney in all legal business connected with his estate.
